ADVERTISEMENT.

THIS Edition contains a List of the late and present House of Commons, shewing the Changes made in the Members of Parliament by the General Election in 1780. And it is further improved with the Additions of the Date when each City and Borough first sent Representatives to Parliament, the Right of Election in each Place, and the supposed Number of Electors. Where the Right of Election has been ascertained by a Resolution of the House of Commons, the Date of that Resolution is given. Where there is no Date to the Right of Election, there has been no Resolution of the House upon it, and the Custom, which is given, is still adhered to. The supposed Number of Electors follow.

EXPLANATION.

Abingdon first sent Representatives to Parliament in the 4th Year of the Reign of Philip and Mary. The Right of Election is in the Inhabitants not receiving Alms, or any Charity, by a Resolution of the House of Commons of the 18th of January, 1708. The supposed Number of Voters are 600.

Respecting the Lists of Changes in all the great Offices, the Rule laid down and pursued in this little Book, is, in each office first giving the Person or Persons who held that Department at the Accession of the present King, and then the Changes, or Alterations, which have been since made, follow with their Dates.

No Pains have been spared to be as accurate as possible: But Notice of any Errors with at all Times be thankfully received by the Publishers; together with any Hints for Improvement.

A LIST of the late and present Members of Parliament.

* * The names in Roman characters are the gentlemen elected at the General Election in 1774, and the names in Italic characters, are the gentlemen elected afterwards.

* * The names in Roman characters are the gentlemen elected at the General Election in 1780, and the names in Italic characters are the gentlemen who were candidates. The figures shew the numbers who voted for each person.
